

Supporting Partnerships for Sustainable Peace in the Central African Republic

*Applying the New Deal Framework for Engagement in Fragile States:
How Civil Society and Local Authorities Can Join Forces*

CSPPS Lab Debate @ European Development Days (EDD)

Organized in collaboration with Bêkou Trust Fund

Thursday, June 8, 2017 – 10:45AM to 12:00PM

Tour & Taxis, Brussels/Belgium

Speakers:

- H.E. Felix Moloua – CAR Minister of Economy, Planning and Cooperation
- Mr. Louis Berthelot, Head of the Fragility, Institutions and Mobility Unit, French Ministry for Europe and Foreign Affairs
- Mr. Irchad Razaaly, Bêkou Trust Fund Manager, DEVCO
- Mr. Eloi Kouzoundji, Deputy Focal Point CSPPS CAR and President of GRDDES-Centrafrique
- M. Georges Petro Koni Zeze, Minister High Commissioner for Decentralization, Regionalization and Local Development
- Mr. James Mackie, Head of Learning and Quality at ECDPM (Moderator)

Using the New Deal framework for engagement in Fragile and Conflict-affected States (FCAS), panelists will engage in an honest and lively debate to address the root causes of fragility in the Central African Republic, while looking at the complementarity between civil society and local authority to enhance stability and resilience from the top down. Session will be in French Only

 idps_cspps
www.cspps.org
www.cordaid.org

#EDD17
#NewDeal4Peace
#NewDeal4CAR
#sustainablepeace

Cordaid  BUILDING FLOURISHING COMMUNITIES

